

Candidate Name & Running For:	About:
 Cheri Beasley NC Supreme Court Chief Justice #01	Before being on the bench for 20 years, Cheri Beasley was a public defender. She believes passionately in having an independent judicial branch that administers justice fairly; and knows the courts can play an important role in helping people better their lives. That's why she'll continue working to make our court system more transparent, fair and accessible for every North Carolinian. Website: www.chiefjusticebeasley.com/
 Lucy Inman NC Supreme Court Chief Justice #02	Judge Lucy Inman has served in courtrooms across North Carolina for nearly a decade, first in the Superior Court and now on the Court of Appeals. Her record shows that she always follows the law and treats every person in court equally, fairly, and with respect. Judge Lucy Inman's experience makes her uniquely qualified to advance the cause of justice on the North Carolina Supreme Court. Website: www.lucyinmanforjustice.com/
 Mark Davis NC Supreme Court Chief Justice #04	I spent 18 years as a practicing attorney and have been an appellate judge since 2012. I am committed to deciding every case fairly and impartially. Partisan agendas have no place in our courts. I am so grateful to Governor Cooper for the opportunity to serve on the NC Supreme Court. As a judge, I am passionate about ensuring that the rights of every person are protected. Website: https://justicemarkdavis.com/index.html
 Tricia Shields NC Court of Appeals, Judge Seat #04	I am a lawyer with 35 years of experience of representing North Carolinians at all levels of our court system, including the Court of Appeals. I know from my own experience how important fair and impartial judges are to our court system, and promise to treat everyone that comes before me equally, with dignity and respect. It is important that judges live up to the constitutional promise of equal protection under the law. My website is: https://www.shieldsforjudge.com/
 Lora Cubbage NC Court of Appeals, Judge Seat #05	I understand the need to elect independent, fair and impartial judges to our judiciary. I have a rooted belief that we need to recommit to the work of justice by making sure our courts are fair and accessible to all people and that the makeup of our branches of government reflect the demographics of our State. I am committed in helping to regain the public trust in the judicial system. Website: https://www.cubbageforjudge.com/
 Gray Styers NC Court of Appeals Judge Seat #06	As a law clerk for Judge Erwin, Styers respect for the rule of law, an appreciation for the role of judges, and an understanding of how our courts are essential to the protection of our rights, the preservation of an orderly society, and the necessary checks and balances of our government... for real people. Website: https://styersforjudge.com/
 Reuben F. Young NC Court of Appeals, Judge Seat #07	I believe there is no higher calling than public service and have spent most of my 32-year legal career serving others. I have been a defense attorney and state prosecutor, worked for three NC Governors, a Superior Court Judge and now a judge on the NC Court of Appeals appointed by Governor Cooper. Fairness and accessibility are the foundation of our justice system. I will continue to advocate for equal access to the courts and a fair, impartial and independent judiciary.
